This is Western Carolino College . . . o world of the mountains . . . o world of beauty . . . the outumn season . . . cool mornings, when blozing color mingles with summer's green to glow through the sun-pierced mist lingering in the volleys . . . o dreoming after-noon with its hoze of stillness ond quiescent peoce . . . cold nights when the eorth is su-suspended below the stor-studded bowl of o moonlit sky . . . Spring, pulsing with new life . . . the silent singing of growing things . . . Summer, mornings of green-filtered sunlight . . . afternoons of muffled clomor of insects . . . oll fromed by the sky, the deep blue of infinity . . . over oll, the mountains, their beou-ty . . . sometimes depresses, sometimes ex-olts . . . this is Western Carolino College, por-troyed through pictures in o Yeorbook . . . for her students, with pride, ond love . . . the Catamount of 1963.

WESTERN CAROLINA COLLEGE

ALMA MATER

by W. E. Bird

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Faithful, kind, and true.
Every son and every daughter
Offers praise to you.

(Chorus)

Hail to the dearest spot of all;
Hail to Cullowhee,
Light and life and fond devotion,
All we owe to thee.
Purple shrouds and colors golden
Streaming everywhere
Swell our hearts with pride for olden
Days and friendship dear.
Under shade trees, friendly bowers
Voices, ever gay
Mingle with the breath of flowers
And the song bird's lay.
Shout aloud with one long chorus,
Voices full and free,
Teachers far us, God up a'er us,
Praise to Cullawhee!

To Dr. H. P. Smith

WITH PRIDE AND RESPECT WE THE STUDENTS OF —

In 1938, Dr. H. P. Smith joined the staff of Western Carolina College. In 1963 he will retire, concluding 25 years of service to the college. He was one of the first instructors who held the Ph.D. Degree. Dr. Smith has devoted his entire life to the cause of education. He has taught every elementary grade, served as school principal, and as school superintendent.

He organized the first choir of the Cullowhee Baptist Church and served as its director for 13 years. He has been an integral part of his community and of his school.

An unflinching integrity, a genuine concern for his fellow man, and generosity toward those in need are essential qualities of Dr. Smith's character.

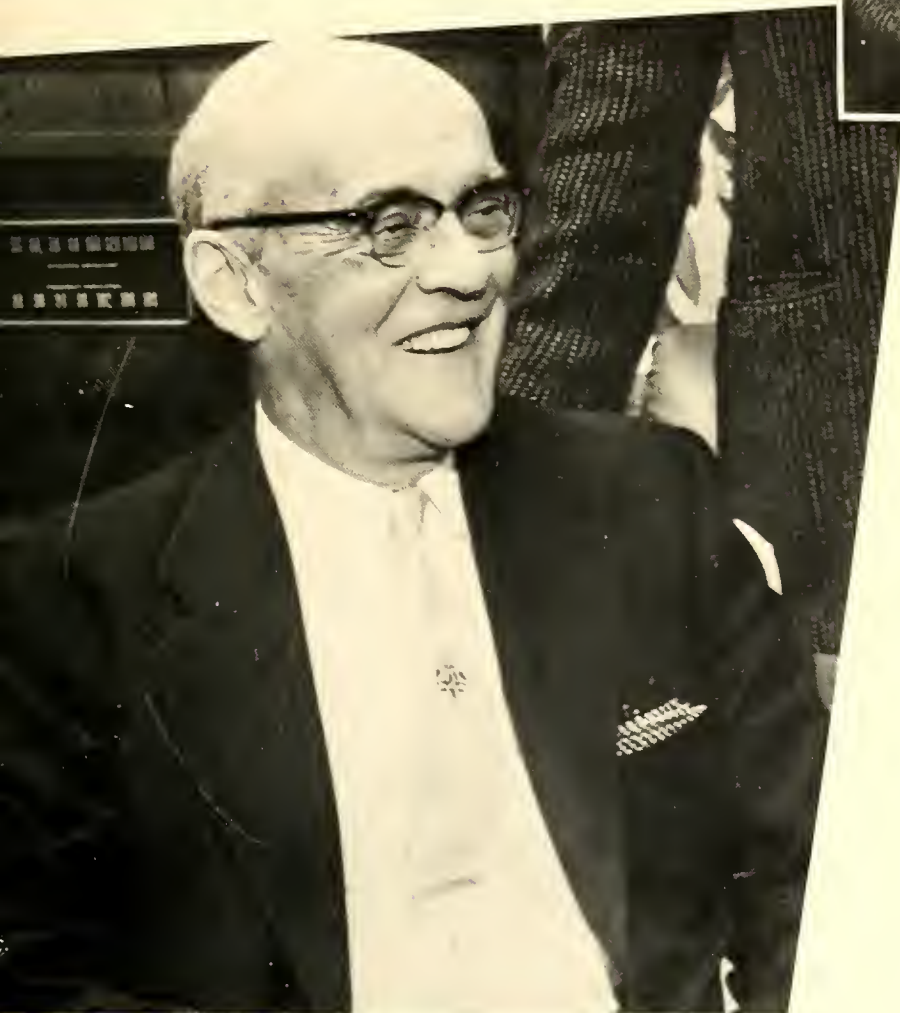

To Dr. H. P. Smith, who has given outstanding service to the education of students of all ages, who has given devoted service to Western Carolina College and its students, we affectionately dedicate the '63 Catamount.

And . . .

To The Memory of Dr. C. F. Wayte

WESTERN CAROLINA COLLEGE
DEDICATE THE
'63 CATAMOUNT

Dr. Charles F. Wayte served on the Faculty of the Business Department of Western Carolina College for nine years. During those years he was constantly active in seeking for the betterment of the school. He was founder and director of the Business and Industrial Placement Service, was instrumental in the organization of the Society for the Advancement of Management, and was sponsor of the first social fraternity at WCC, in 1957.

Dr. Wayte had an unfailing interest in his students—in their instruction and in their welfare. A student said of him, "Now there's a man. A man who will stand behind you. A man who will instruct you."

To Dr. Charles F. Wayte who gave so much of himself to his students and to Western Carolina College, we proudly dedicate the '63 Catamount.

Next . . .

1962 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS

To the Alumni . . .

The tradition of a school is created by its students. As those students leave the school, going forth to accomplish, they leave a tradition for the ones yet to come. With affection for that tradition, and in recognition of accomplishment, we the present students proudly dedicate the '63 Cata-mountain to the former students of Western Carolina College.

To you, our alumni . . .

Then . . .

To the SPIRIT of the CATAMOUNT

The spirit of the catamount . . . the spirit of the students . . . laughing, pushing . . . thoughtful, quiet . . . the mass, the individual . . . cheering . . . a football game, exhilaration . . . excitement . . . the strains of the Alma Mater at graduation . . . a quick tug at the heart, the sting of unshed tears . . . quiet talks with intimate friends . . . idle talk with near-strangers . . . some loneliness, some sadness . . . balanced by comradeship, happiness . . . hoping for, yet dreading, graduation . . . the feeling of security . . . the feeling of alienation . . . Pride in a name . . . Western Carolina College . . . knowledge of that for which it stands . . . breathing forth a vital life of its own, through its mass of students, its individual students . . . a spirit, with a soul, a collective heart . . . living . . . This we call the Spirit of the Catamount . . . the love and pride of a student for his school . . . understanding, yet not understanding its life . . . school spirit . . . spirit of the school . . . its symbol: a Catamount.

MIT BALLOONS EVEN!

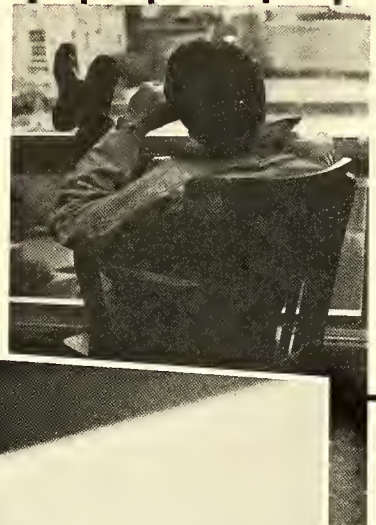

WHICH ONE IS CHET?

NOW YOU TELL ME ITS A BOY'S DORM!

CLEANS A MEAN
PROFIT!

NOW IS THE TIME FOR FFLRG?

I'LL HAVE TO REMEMBER THAT ONE.

ONE IF BY LAND AND TWO IF BY SEA, BUT BE SURE THEY'RE NOT RED.

IN-SERVICE PROGRAM

Earl Lewis, McElroth, Vernon W. Loyd, James W. Peterson, H. Lone West, William Burl Ponnell, Clarence Coldwell Clory, Arthur F. Dixon, Louis H. McElroy

Jim Norman
Assistant Director of Extension

To serve the industries and businesses of this area by helping them to up-grade their personnel educationally stands as the purpose of the In-Service Program. Begun in 1959, it now encompasses several industries surrounding Cullowhee.

This program sets up course work toward the B.S. degree in Business Administration on the campus and at selected centers near industry. Enka and Canton have been the only centers used to date because sufficient students have not been available elsewhere to establish minimum sized classes.

The courses offered are essentially the same as those taken by resident students. Exceptions are that no physical education or orientation courses are included and some subjects especially requested by industry have been substituted for those omitted. The in-service students take nine quarter hours work in each eleven weeks and should complete the requirements of 192 quarter hours in six weeks.

Editor—Kay Kindley

WHO'S WHO

The students recognized for this organization each year are nominated from approximately 775 colleges and universities. Committees consider, in making their selections, the student's scholarship, his participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, his citizenship and service to the school, and his promise of future usefulness.

Our staff wishes to add its compliments to those of you who have received this honor, and to extend to you our congratulations. We hope that you will consider this recognition a partial reward for achievement and that this honor will serve as an encouragement for the future.

WHO'S WHO

BEAUTY

Ellen Kirkly — Editor

MISS WESTERN CAROLINA COLLEGE

Miss Susan Todd, petite brunette senior from Charlotte, was chosen by the student body as Miss Western Carolina College for 1962-63. Susan is a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority, Co-chief of the Marshal's Club, and a member of the May Court this year. Beauty and active participation in campus activities characterize Miss WCC, who is pictured above in her dormitory room.

MISS CATAMOUNT
KIM CASHION

MISS CATAMOUNT

Kim Cashion, Miss Catamount of 1962-63, is a tiny, lively brunette with sparkling blue eyes. Kim is probably best known for her enthusiastic contribution to the Cheerleading Squad. She is also an officer in Sigma Koppo Sorority and a member of the Marshal's Club. A junior from Kings' Mountain, Kim is majoring in English and Social Studies. She is a member of this year's Homecoming and May Courts, and the Catamount presents her with pride as the representative of the yearbook.

MAY QUEEN
MISS PAT WALTERS

MAY QUEEN

Miss Pot Wolters of Huntersville reigned as Queen of this year's May Day Festivities. A senior from Huntersville, Pot was Miss Western Carolino of 1961-62, Maid-of-Honor of last year's May Court, and is an officer of Sigma Kappa Sorority. She is a member of this year's Homecoming Court, and Co-Chief of the Marshal's Club. Pot's impressive list of beauty titles demonstrated the extent to which her ready friendliness has won the hearts of WCC students.

Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity was founded at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington, Illinois, on January 10, 1899.

The fraternity colors are cherry and grey, with the flower being the red carnation and the jewel is the white pearl.

Te Kappa at W. C. C. started out as a local fraternity, Lambda Phi Kappa, on October 7, 1957, and on April 4, 1959, it went national and became the Zeta-Omicron chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon. Today it is the largest social fraternity in the world.

THETA XI

Theta Xi Fraternity was founded at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, New York, on April 29, 1864. The present Theta Xi chapter was previously the Beta chapter of Kappa Sigma Kappa and was installed at Western Carolina College in 1958. In August of 1962, Kappa Sigma Kappa merged with Theta Xi. The local chapter was installed on January 6, 1963, as the Kappa Phi chapter of Theta Xi.

IN MEMORIAM

These died this year, victims of the sudden twist of fate which decrees that many must die each year in automobile accidents. We who were their friends have grieved . . . we remember them with love and affection because they brought brightness into our lives. They served their fellows with friendliness and warmth. Though they are no longer in our midst, we remember their warmth, their friendliness, their service.

We dedicate the '63 Cotamont to these four students.

"A horse, o horse, my kingdom for a horse."

Coach Dan Robinson's Catamounts opened their 1962 football campaign with a bang as they beat a highly regarded Carson Newman eleven, 7-0. Asheville's Memorial Stadium was the setting for the exciting defensive battle of the two intersectional rivals. A crowd of over 2,000 saw the Cats travel 73 yards for the only touchdown of the game. Sophomore halfback Walter Swainey ran the final 18 yards for the score with Van Stayton adding a perfect placement late in the first quarter. The Cats then settled down to a strong defensive game which was spearheaded by a tough defensive line of tackles, Jim Hobson, Frank Stankunas plus guard Steve Paduhovich, end Jim Tanzillo, and linebacker Charlie Bailey.

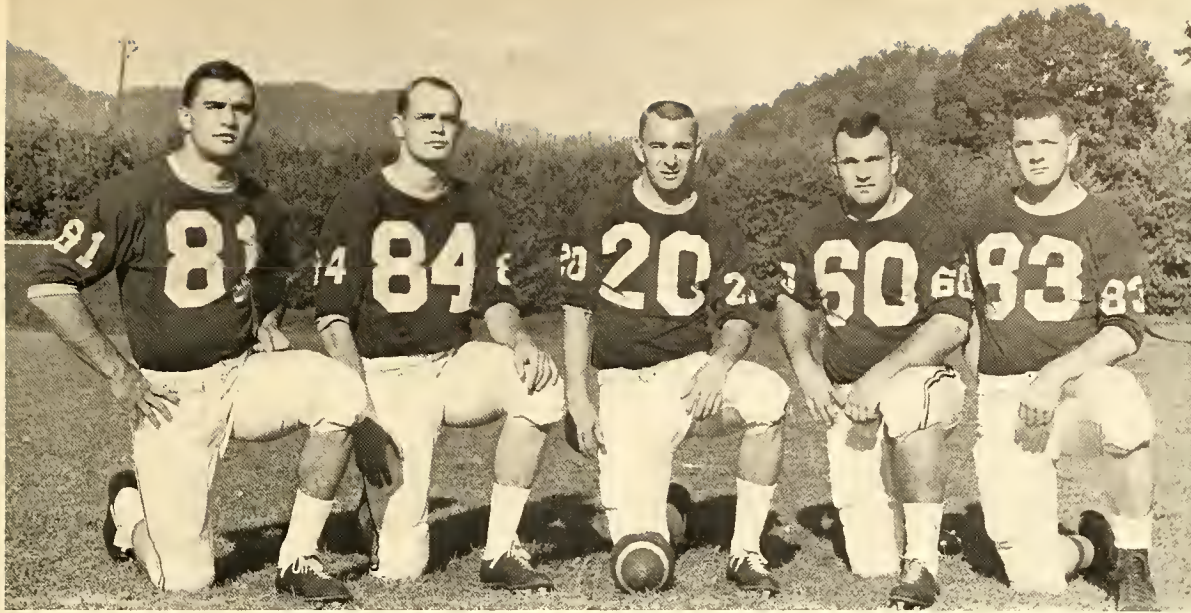

A couple of newcomers figured in the offensive show of WCC in freshman quarterback Terry Rigsby and junior transfer Ken Sanford, a bullish fullback. Rigsby put on a fine show in his first game as a Catamount, directing the victors to 16 first downs, as he played the whole game as the Cat signal caller. Sanford, a Gardner-Webb transfer, plowed for 78 yards in his first game in the purple and gold. Veteran Ken Morgan was also outstanding as he led the only touchdown drive in picking up 4 first downs on the march.

The daily grind

Somebody finally caught one!

Seniors: Jim Tanzillo, Tam Hunnicutt, Ken Morgan, Steve Paduhovich, Bab Cauble

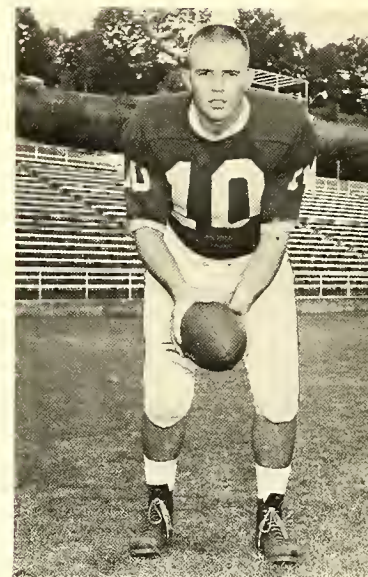

A rugged defensive battle was the order of the night as the Catamounts and arch rival Appalachian fought it out before over 4,000 fans again in Asheville. For three quarters, neither team could muster a scare as punting and tough line play was featured. Big Jim Hobsan, who sustained a bad ankle injury, and line backer Charlie Bailey played tremendous defensive games for the Robinsonmen. These two along with Jim Tanzillo, captain Frank Stankunas, and Steve Paduhovich combined to hold the vaunted Appalachian backfield to 64 yards.

The Cats drew first blood in the last period. After L. D. Hyde boomed one of his tremendous punts deep into Mountaineer territory, the Catamount forward wall held and forced App. to pass. Halfback Ronnie Henderson snatched Mauntie signal caller, Mike Chandler's pass at the twelve and raced to the one. On the next play Henderson bolted over the line for a six pointer. The placement was wide and the Cats held a 6-0 lead. With 4:34 remaining, fullback Jim Hayes hit up the middle from the one to even things up. App. missed the extra point and the score was knotted at 6-6.

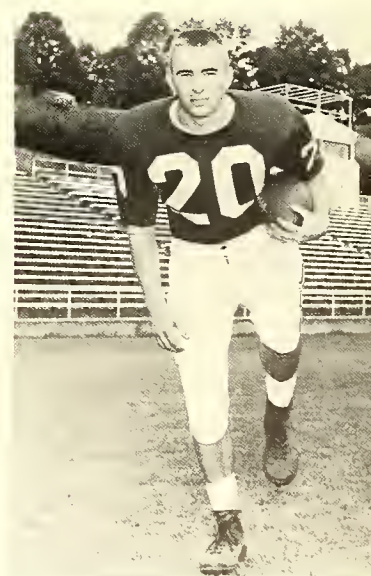

This was the first conference game of the season for the Catamounts leaving them with a 1-1 overall slate.

Tension mounts on the bench as the Cats wrap up their first home game.

Playing their first home game of the season, the Cotamounds put on a dazzling offensive performance as they racked up 308 yards rushing to send Guilford to defeat, 15-6. Ronnie Henderson and Ken Sanford were the big guns in the Cotomount offensive thrust. Henderson, a sophomore halfback from Greenwood, S. C., rombled for 147 yards while Sonford, the 185 pound fullback from Hortwell, Ga., bulled for 104 up the middle. They each scored once in the first half as the Cats led 12-0 at intermission. It was 15-0 after Von Stayton connected on a 24 yard field goal in the third stanza.

Another fine defensive performance was turned in by the front Cat line holding the Quokers to 88 yards rushing, only 30 in the second half. All-American Fronk Stonkunos led the forward wall both offensively and on defensive.

Senior halfback Ken Morgon racked up 85 yards in a fine show of shiftiness and speed. The blocking of center Boyd Adams, guard Mott Lowson, and Tom Hunnicutt, senior end, opened holes for the Cotomount back.

The victory ron the Cat's season record to 2-0-1.

Catamounts	13
Catawba	26

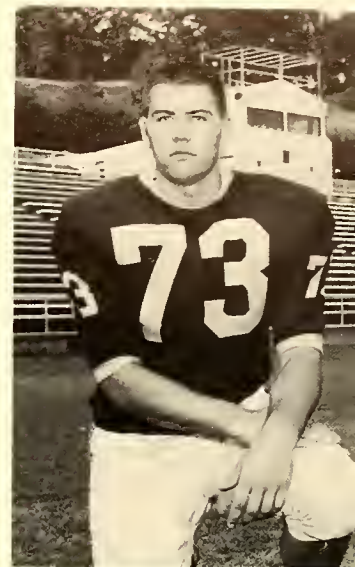

A determined Ken Sanford fights for yardage.

The Catamounts bit the dust for the first time as they fell to a fired up band of Catawba Indians, 26-13, before a homecoming crowd in Salisbury. The Indians used every defensive weapon in the book to turn a close game into a rout in the last half.

Steve Paduhovich pounced upon a Catawba fumble in the second quarter to set up the first Cat score. Ronnie Hendersan scored from the two and Van Stayton converted to give the Robinsonmen their only lead of the day. Bill McDevitt, Catawba's sensational quarterback passed and ran Catawba to a 12-7 halftime lead as the game could have gone either way at that stage. However, McDevitt scored two more in the third quarter to send Catawba way out front, 26-7.

The Cats staged a slight comeback late in the fourth quarter as Terry Rigsby passed to Ken Morgan as a beautiful 84 yard scoring play.

Rigsby, Ken Sanford, with 68 yards rushing, Frank Stankunas, and Paduhovich were the only bright spot in the dismal Cat performance.

WCC defense downs ECC runner.

In perhaps the most thrilling homecomings ever staged in Cullowhee, Coach Dan Robinson's Catamounts put on a terrific second half comeback to down powerful East Carolina, 20-16.

The largest crowd to ever watch a game in Memorial Stadium, estimated at near 7,000, saw ECC take a 9-0 half-time lead. Everyone but the team seemed to have given up as the Pirates showed signs of more to come in the second half. At this time, Coach Robinson, unsatisfied at the performances of his two seasoned quarterbacks, inserted a 6'1" Freshman from Plant City, Florida. Many people didn't even know who he was as it was the first time he had set foot on the turf in game action. His name was John Ruta, a name that was to be sounded all over the Carolinas for the rest of the season. He directed the Cats to three touchdowns; passing for one, setting up one with a clutch run, and using beautiful techniques for the last.

WCC offense flying low

With Ken Morgan sweeping the ends for 115 yards and Ken Sanford tearing up the line for 97 yards, the Cats moved with precise accuracy to the thrilling upset. It was almost like a dream to the Catamount fans, as the Catamounts totaled 21 first downs and 275 yards in taking the big one.

The Catamounts went ahead in the third quarter as Ruta passed to Wolter Swainey for the first touchdown, and Ken Morgan scooted in for the second. ECC then roared back to move ahead 16-13, but in the waning moments Ken Sanford scored on a draw play, set up beautifully by Ruta. With an extra point the Cats led 20-16. With less than two minutes remaining in the game ECC took the ball and started up field in a last-ditch attempt to gain the win. But it was too late and the Cats, with the victory, boosted their season record to 3-1-1.

WCC defense stops Lenoir Rhyne drive.

The unbelievable Lenoir Rhyne Bears received the ranking of the best small college team in the country for the Cotamounds as the roof caved in on the Cats title contending hopes on Oct. 20.

Nothing went right from the kickoff for the Cats as they took possession on their one-inch line. It was just a matter of minutes before LR had roced to a two touchdown lead. It was 23-0 at halftime as the Cats couldn't get going in any capacity.

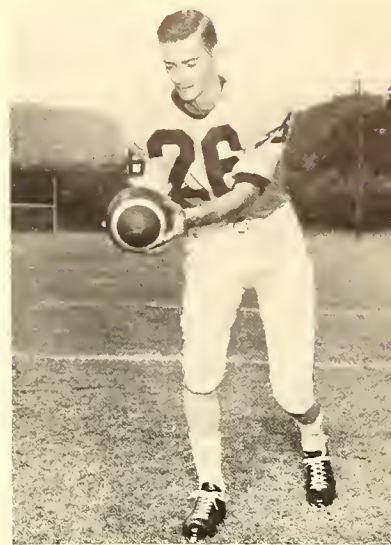

The passing of John Ruta proved to be the only thing the Cats could muster as they failed to ever threaten on the ground, ending the night with —29 yards rushing. Ruta passed for 105 yards as he took the Cul-lowhee eleven to the LR 19 lot in the game for their only threat. All-American Richard Kemp and Odell White proved to be too much as the Bears over 400 yards offensively.

This was the beginning of the end for the Cats, as still held a respectable record of 3-2-1 at this stage of the season.

It takes a lot to keep a good man down!

A tremendous two point conversion attempt by halfback Lew Bost fell short by six inches as the Cats fell to the Elan Christians, 14-13, before an excited home crowd. The Catamounts were always fighting back in their last home game of the season. An intercepted pass set up the first Elan score. However, fullback Ken Sanford drove his way for 56 of the Cats first touchdown drive of 66 yards and scored from the six. Van Staytan's placement was perfect and the Cats led 7-6.

Another Cat miscue, a dropped punt deep in their own territory, gave the Christians their second tally, plus a two point conversion which proved to be the deciding factor.

The Catamounts, behind the running of Sanford and the passing of sensational Jahn Ruta, drove 90 yards with Sanford scoring his second. Bost on the two point try, swept end only to have Elan's Willie Tart pull a tremendous play on him to stop the Cat halfback short.

Ruta with 103 yards passing and Sanford with 103 rushing paced the Cats offensively with Jim Habsan, Frank Stankunas, Hamer Rodgers, and Charlie Boiley starring on defense.

Quarterback Ruta struggles against Emory-Henry defense.

The Cats traveled to Emory, Virginia on a cold, dreary Saturday in November to face the undefeated Emory and Henry Wasps. The situation remained dreary for Coach Robinson's eleven as they fell to the Wasp's balanced attack, 21-9.

The Catamounts had a couple of good scoring opportunities, but mistakes and a tough E&H forward wall proved to be the stumbling blocks. The game could have gone either way until the fourth quarter when the Wasps opened up a 21-3 lead.

At halftime, the score stood 7-3 with the Virginians out in front. Van Stayton's 21 yard field goal was the only points the Cats could muster as their drive bogged down on the Wasp 11 yard line.

The running of Emory's 245 pound halfback, Earl Howkins, a fumble by the Cats combined with an interception led to the next homestand score.

With only a few minutes to play, John Ruta hit Lew Bost for a 4 yard T.D. as he passed the cats every inch of the 86 yard drive Bost caught 7 passes for 93 yards in the dishearting loss that left the Cats 3-4-1 on the season.

WCC band and cheerleaders escort Cats into Memorial Stadium.

The Western Carolina Catamounts closed out their 1962 football season with another close one, losing to the Newberry Indians 15-14, on the road.

Despite the loss, the Cats put on one of their best all-around performances of the season as they played hard-nosed defense and blocked savagely all the way.

Newberry took the kickoff and scored within five minutes. The Indians made good on the two point conversion to lead 8-0.

After a battle between the thirties the Cats finally drew blood with Lew Bost scoring on a sweep from 16 yards early in the second stanza. Ken Sanford, the Cats great fullback, set up the score with his powerful rushing attack through the middle of the Indian line. The two point attempt failed and it was 8-6.

The Cats tried desperately to forge ahead, but Van Stayton's 30 yard field goal attempt hit the crossbar. However, the Cats regained possession with 29 seconds to play in the first half. John Ruta then hit Ken Morgan on a beautiful toss that Morgan took on the dead run, as he scored from the 29. Ruta then passed to Tom Hunnicutt for two and the Cats led 14-8.

Sanford, after a terrific first half, kept up his bullish tactics as he garnered 119 yards on the ground to break Lew Bost's rushing mark of 642 yards. Ruta connected for 105 yards through the air to bring his total to 520, but the Cats still lost as Newberry scored midway of the fourth period and their placement was good.

Coach Dan Robinsan congratulates All-State, All American Frank Stankunas

FRANK STANKUNAS NAMED ALL AMERICAN

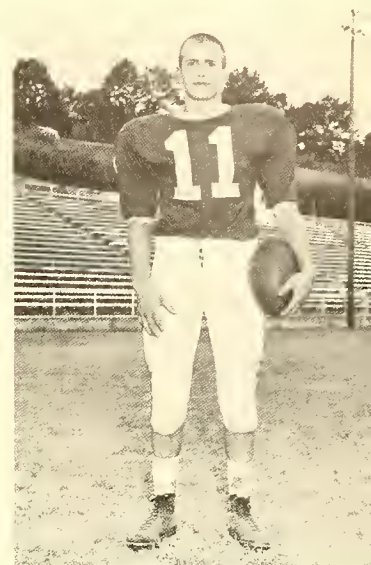

Frank Stankunas, the big 6'2", 220 pounder from Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, reaped several honors for his efforts on the gridiron this past fall. Acting as co-captain of the 1962 gridiron Cotamounds Stankunas brought honor to the college as well as to himself. During the season he was voted All-Conference, All-District and All-State. In the last category he joined stars from Duke, Corolino, State and Wake Forest. His choice for a berth on the Conference team was unanimous. Frank also ranked high in the voting for the Carolinos Conference best lineman. Another honor came in the form of a vote of confidence for Frank when his teammates voted to name him most valuable player on the 1962 gridiron squad. He shared this honor with former All-American Ken Sanford. Frank's biggest compliment came at the end of the season, however, when he was given a place on the third team of Williamson's Little All-American Squad. This capped a brilliant season for Stankunas and was a well-deserved honor for a man who plays to win.

PADUHOVICH AND SANDFORD REAP HONORS

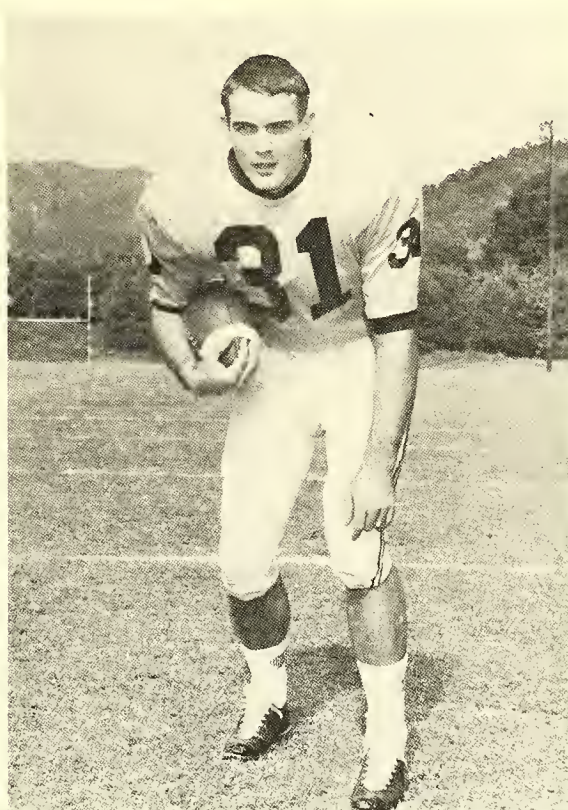

Senior guard Steve Paduhavich and Junior Fullback Ken Sanford were given honorable mention on the 1962 Little All American team joining Frank Stankunas. Paduhavich and Sanford brought accord to the college as well as to themselves for their fine efforts on the gridiron this past campaign. Steve is a 205 pound guard from Clifton, New Jersey and Ken is a 190 pound fullback from Hartwell, Georgia. Sanford, who will be back on the field during the 1963 season is looking forward to a banner year for the Cata-maunts. Both men deserve the admiration and honor accorded them for the spirit and determination both displayed during the past season.

The 1963 Basketball season was many things. It was standing room only at Reid Gym and a victory at every home game. It was fast court action and precision maneuvering under the basket. It was victory at the Holiday Tournament and bringing home the trophy from Spindale. It was tension and excitement and a college caught up in the fever of victory. It was a total home attendance of 22,000. It was 21 wins and 5 losses and a near miss at the number one spot. Above all it was the spirit of the Catamount sounded in the stands and acted on the court as the Cats made 1963 another basketball season to be remembered.

If the old adage that "one picture is worth a thousand words" is true, these pages give ample testimony to their veracity. Thousands of words have been written about the 1963 Catamount Basketball Team and many thousands will, no doubt, be written in the future. The pictures on these pages represent those words. They have captured, in a sense, the action and excitement which marked the 1963 season as one of the greatest.

Citizen-Times
Raleigh Bureau

RALEIGH—The General Assembly Wednesday tipped its hat to Western Carolina College's high-flying basketball players and coaches in passage of a joint resolution of congratulations.

The measure, introduced by Rep. Lacy H. Thornburg of Jackson, home county of the Catamounts, was in recognition of the team's series of victories which carried it into the finals of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics tournament in Kansas City last week.

The resolution praised the Catamounts for "overcoming great odds" to win an upset victory in the District 26 Championship over other teams of the two Carolinas.

It noted the WCC squad was competing at Kansas City in a field of 32 champion teams from throughout the nation and was seeded well down on the list.

"Nevertheless," the resolution said, the WCC basketball team "was able by virtue of its spirit and ability, and in an uphill battle, to win the right to participate in the finals of the NAIA Championship tournament, and while losing the championship game in a hard fought contest, was able to distinguish itself for its excellent play and good sportsmanship."

The WCC feat, the legislature noted, was the first time a team in the history of the 26th District had advanced beyond the quarterfinals of the NAIA championship tourney.

The accomplishment has brought "honor and distinction to the state generally, and to Western North Carolina in particular, and the people of WCC are justly proud," the resolution said.

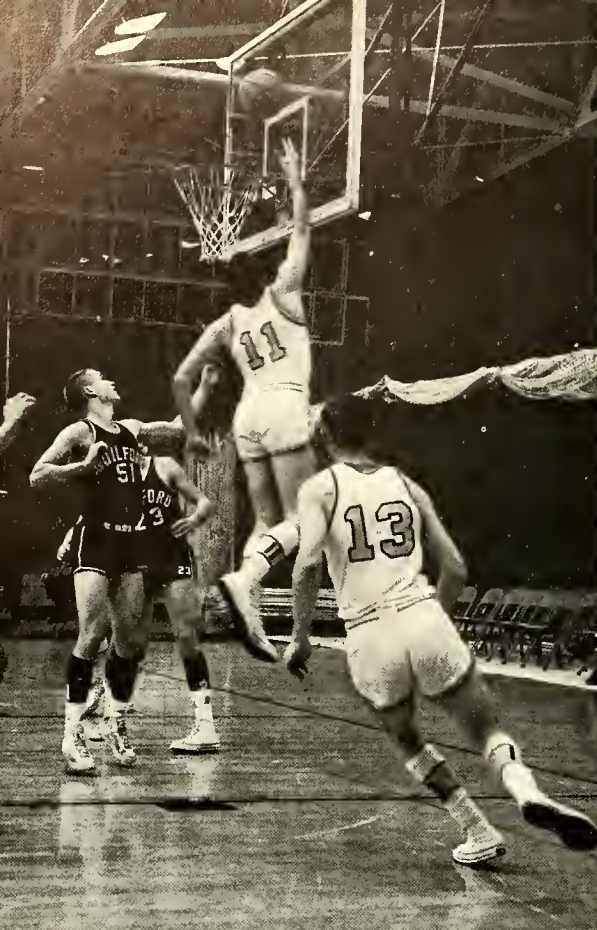

The Assembly "commended and congratulated" the team and coaches and expressed its "sincere appreciation for the credit reflected upon the State and WCC . . . for the accomplishments, the outstanding sportsmanship and the determined spirit of the team in compiling a superb record" at Kansas City.

BASEBALL 1963

Coach, Dan Gudger

Catcher, Leonard Goforth

Infielders: Ken Morgan, Will Parker, Bill Rhinehart, Ron Whitaker, Phil Tote, Cecil Caldwell.

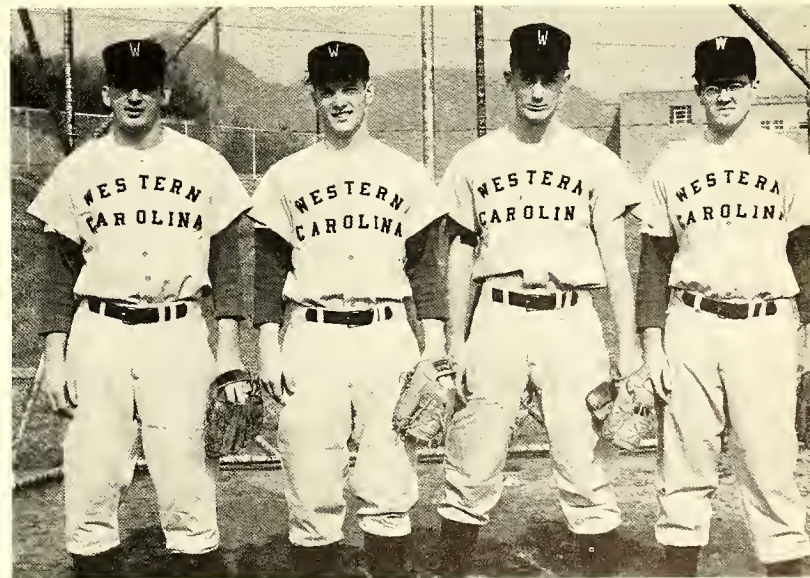

Pitchers: Robert Hilliard, Clarence Rogers, Jerry Coskey, Glenn Ivey, Ronnie Lytle.

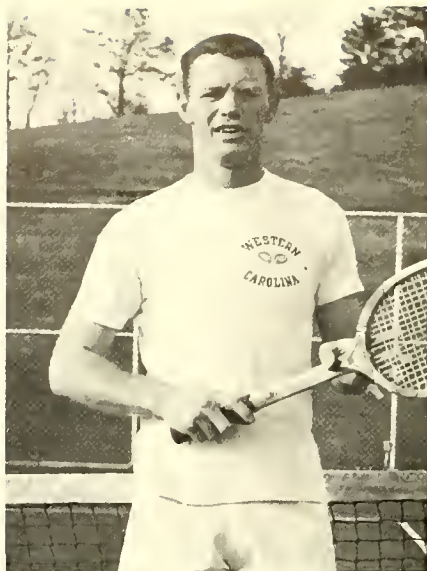

The 1963 edition of the Cata-maunt baseball team could prove to be one of the conference's top teams. But the big question is as usual, "Can the pitching department hold up its end. The cats managed to finish the '62 season with a 12-12 overall record. With 13 lettermen from last year's team returning, the Cats should have a steady ball team.

The Catamaunts should be one of the better hitting teams in the conference. Pacing the returning lettermen is Ken Margan. The return of Jack Spady and Ran Whitiker should add even more hitting power to the Catamaunt lineup. Clarence Rogers, Bob Hilliard, Jerry Casky and Glen Ivey should be able to take care of the mound duties. Behind the plate will be Leonard Gafarth. Team Captain will be Will Parker.

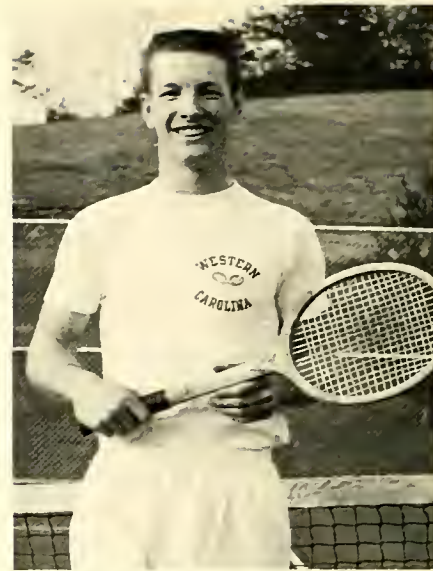

Outfielders: Jock Spady, Danny Thorpe, Earl Crotts, Lorry Porker.

TENNIS 1963

Things are looking up for the Catamount Tennis Team during the 1963 season. Four lettermen are returning to the squad and the addition of several newcomers should complement the fine playing of the returning lettermen. The team is scheduled to play twelve matches this season and will participate in the Tennis Tournament at Wilson, N. C. on May 13 and 14.

Piloting this years racketeers will be Rock Teague, a Senior with three years of varsity experience. Teague will serve as both coach and captain as well as playing in team matches. Joining Teague on the court will be veterans Jerry Kaantz and Karen Sanders. Behind the veterans will be John Ollis, Fred Ryder, Langdan Sealy, Frank Ellis, Chester Clontz and Harris Hutta. Together they hope to do big things in tennis this Spring.

The Women's Intramural Program, sponsored jointly by the Department of Health and Physical Education and the Woman's Athletic Association, is an essential phase of student life designed to promote interest and participation in a wide variety of activities.

The main objectives of the program are:

1. To provide opportunities for all students to participate in wholesome recreation.
2. To provide opportunities for all students to participate in competitive activities during leisure time.
3. To provide a program of activities which will contribute to the social, mental, and physical development of students.

4. To provide a program of activities which will subject the students to group spirit, enthusiasm and loyalty.

The Award Blazer awarded by the W.A.A. for participation in all of its activities represents the ultimate achievement of outstanding effort for the individual participant. It is the culmination of many hours of effort, skill, and proficiency in an all round program of activities. To wear the W.A.A. Blazer is indeed the highlight of the woman athlete's life at Western Carolina College.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Silent presses know the answer
To that annual bequest
But the damage is quite over, sir,
And the editor must rest.

Too late for excuses now
It was worth the try;
No time for a mistakeless vow
The ink is quite dry.

Complain elsewhere if you will,
Errors are not quite fun;
Kindly swallow that bitter pill
The editor is quite done.

G. M.

If the above lines were expressive of the greatly deserved credit for the contributions made by the members of the '63 Catamount staff, the editor would be "quite done."

The '63 Catamount is indebted to these, to whom I would like to express my appreciation: Howard Perkins, Layout Manager; Bill Smith, Photographer; Bill Dixon, Business Manager; Mrs. Janie Leftwich and Mr. Duane Oliver, Sponsors; the Catamount Staff: Robbyn Morrow, Ellen Kirkley, Susie Hembree, Linda Jenkins, Carolyn Sease, Anne Jones, Jane Long, Jo Anne Comer, Linda Willis, Joyce Perry, Amy Mozingo, Romona Wilson, Karen Saunders, Tommy Page, Mary Cranford, C. W. Hopper, Peter Raoul, Becky Walker, Herb Quarles, Joyce Rogers, Mary Carpenter, Ann Hyder, Diane Veltri, Kay Speight, Dave Evans, Jim Callahan and YOU, for your cooperation and patience.

This book was created for the Students of Western Carolina College. It required many hours of hard work by a large number of people. I sincerely hope that the student body enjoys and approves the 1963 CATAMOUNT.
